TERMS OF DEPOSIT

To hold a puppy, your deposit must be received within 4 working days, or the puppy will be placed back up for adoption. When the deposit is received, the puppy will be listed as "sold". Full payment must be received by 8 weeks of age unless prior arrangements have been made or else the puppy goes back up for adoption and the deposit is forfeited. The deposit can be in the form of cash, USPS Money order, or we can accept Paypal or credit cards. If the deposit is being mailed, it must be sent via Priority Mail with a return receipt.

A deposit to hold a puppy is $500, unless other arrangements have been made. Deposits are NON-REFUNDABLE, but can be held for up to one year and applied towards a future puppy. After one year, all monies will be forfeited.

Deposit Form

Any time prior to 6 weeks of age, deposits can be transferred to another puppy for a period of 1 year from the original deposit date if you are not happy with how your puppy is turning out or if it has become necessary for you to wait for a better time to adopt. After 6 weeks of age, all decisions are final.

For puppies being shipped, the balance due, including all costs associated with shipping, is due at the time the puppy is 7 weeks old. This allows us time to prepare for the puppy's trip.

For puppies being picked up, the balance is due when the puppy goes home. We accept cash for any monies due at the time of pick up.

A signed Deposit Form and a Contract/Guarantee MUST accompany your deposit. If paying through Paypal/credit card you must send a signed copy to us. I will return signed copies back to you by mail or if you pick up your puppy.

Unless other arrangements have been made, if Impressive Pups does not receive the full purchase price (including shipping costs) by the time the puppy is 8 weeks old, the deposit will be forfeited, and the puppy will be placed back up for adoption.

Please note that as the breeder I have the first pick to hold back any puppy of any of my litters.

Deposits will be fully refunded, in a timely manner, if for any reason your puppy becomes unavailable due to the fault of the seller, (illness or death of the puppy).
